

Leadership development enthusiast, Author, Coach, Counsellor, Design Thinker, Critical Thinker, Learning Specialist, Educator, and Content Curator

George is a seasoned Leadership Coach, Author, and Learning Specialist with over 25 years of experience spanning Manufacturing, Consulting, Assessment Centers, and Information Technology. A Chemistry graduate from Madras Christian College, he began his career with MRF Tyres before moving into consulting roles at Layam, Ma Foi, and Paradigm Shift, where he partnered with organizations and institutions to drive impactful learning solutions.

He has led training functions at CavinKare and DORMA, overseeing product and sales training. At Infosys, as a Lead Educator, he played a pivotal role in fostering an innovation-driven culture through Design Thinking. Later, as Global Head of Learning & Development at Servion Global Solutions, he spearheaded leadership and talent development initiatives. He also had a brief tenure at Hyundai Motor India Ltd. as Head of Human Resources Development.

Currently, George is the Director of Learning & Development at Sify Technologies, an ICT company, where he continues to shape leadership excellence.

A Dale Carnegie-certified High Impact Presentation Trainer, George is also a Certified MBTI Practitioner and is trained in Six Thinking Hats and Train the Trainer by FORUM Australia. His expertise spans Leadership Development, Coaching, and Learning Strategies.

As the author of *ECube Leadership, he explores the power of Empathy, Exuberance, and Execution in leadership. A passionate blogger and content creator, he shares insights on leadership and learning through his blog and YouTube channel, Ideas Beats and Tunes.

Beyond work, George enjoys reading, football, music, and experimenting with open-source technology.